

Cromanton.

Mr James Lee has rented the White property.

Capt Wrights launch, the Monarch, passed by here on Thursday.

Rev Carlisle of the Baptist denomination preached here on Sunday.

Mr Howlett, the photographer, has established his headquarters at Cromanton for the present.

Mr Bates new boat the Lavida glides gracefully over the water, making frequent trips to Millville and vicinity.

Mrs Bailey is suffering from a severe attack of typhoid malaria. At last reports she was thought to be some better.

Mr C. W. Forbes, in the Usay, made a hasty trip to St Andrew on Sunday after Dr Jansenius, for Mrs Ecker, who was quite ill. We are pleased to state that she is now recovering.

A boat load from Parker came over here twice last week to attend the meetings. They were Mrs Arthur Pratt, Miss Brown, and the Messrs Walter, Charles, and Robert Parker.

Capt Forbes is preparing to take another party out to the beach this week to see the "whale." This time the curious ones are from Cromanton, heretofore they have been from Millville.

Work on the hull of Mr Ezra Kinneys new launch is progressing nicely under the able management of Frank Kinney. The boat will be ready for the engine, which has been shipped, as soon as it arrives.

Miss Porter closed a very successful term of school on Friday last. Bertha Hoskins won the prize. Miss Porter is preparing to return to her home in Georgia. Her many friends here will miss here very much but are partly consoled by her promise to return.

Gay.

Dr Mitchell was a professional caller in town last week.

R. W. Gay returned last week from a few days stay at Wausau.

Mr A. J. Gay was in town last week stopping over on his return from up country.

The Misses Conna and Legrid Helm, of Vicksburg, are the guests of Mrs L. C. Gay.

Miss Blanche McMillan returned from a few days visit to her parents at Wausau last week.

We regret to report that Dr Booth has not been as well the past few days as he was last week.

Mr and Mrs G. H. McKenzie, of Panama City, were callers upon Dr and Mrs Booth last Sunday.

Capt and Mrs Anderson, and L. C. Gay, wife and family dined with Chas Anderson, of Anderson, last Sunday.

Captain Frank Ware, of Bay Head, has been in town several times the past few days with passengers, mostly drummers, for different places.

All the telephones at this place have been installed, and are in perfect working condition. When you want to speak with your friends now jnst drop your little chink into the slot and enjoy a visit with them.

L. C. Gay and family, with their guests, the Misses Helms, and Mrs R. W. Gay and Blanch McMillan constituted a fishing party up Cedar creek last Tuesday. We understand their catch was not phenominal, although they had an abundance of dinner.

John Peterson, who is on the Booth-McKenzie, farm, was distributing water melons among friends in town the past week. He says the first two plantings of the season have been almost entire failures owing to the cold spring weather, but has hopes that later plantings will yield fairly well.

Mr W. McCormick, of Eufaula, Ala., was a caller at Dr Booths last week. His enthusiasm of and compliments upon the Doctor's choice of location, as he sat upon the front veranda and gazed out upon the beautiful bay in front and equally grand bayou to the right, with its high banks overhanging, with the moss covered and picturesque oaks, was very gratifying, and saying, "This is the most beautiful spot I have ever seen." This is Mr McCormick's first trip to the bay and he is perfectly delighted with the whole country from Panama City to North Bay.
